Girl Dances After Murdering Mother

Daughter, 16 Years Old, Shoots Parent Dead in Flare of Anger
REMAINS INDIFFERENT
Police Arrest Three of Seventeen Young Men Who Attend Party

By Associated Press
San Francisco, Calif.—Pleasure-
loving Dorothy Ellingson, 16 years old,
confessed slayer of her mother, Mrs.
Anna Ellingson, maintained Friday
the smiling, yet inscrutable mask of indifference that has characterized her attitude since her arrest early Thursday morning. The girl is charged with murder.

Emerging from 12 hours of pitiless
questioning Friday, the girl was still
"the life of the party" just as she had been a short time after the mu-der when she danced at the apartment of a friend while her mother lay in their home, shot dead during a flare of anger.

The police Friday had rounded up three of seventeen young men for whom warrants have been issued for contributing to the delinquency of a minor. They included David Stein, in whose apartment Dorothy is said to have attended a party a few hours after the death of her mother; Keith Lord, arrested in Venice, Calif., where he was playing in an orchestra,
and Harry Lessen, alias Chinitz, taken into custody here. All of the men are musicians. More arrests are expected Friday, according to the authorities.

BROTHER UNFORGIVING
Both father and brother confronted the girl in the city jail, the former sorrowful and pleading, the latter stern and unrelenting. The brother, stricken by the enormity of the crime, repudiated the advances of his sister when she sought to embrace him in the cell. With the cry "Don't touch me, you killed our mother," the young man swept her from him.

The shooting came as a climax to a long series of family differences over the girl's actions. Her father and mother had quarreled because of the clandestine life their daughter admits she led. The mother defended her daughter. The father then left home.

After the girl shot her mother to death, according to her confession,
she went to a purse in the same room and took $45, went out on a "wild party" that night and returned to her room, just rented, two miles away, to read papers containing the account of her mother's death. She was captured through information given the police by one of her male companions.

OSHKOSH WOMEN VOTERS WORK FOR WORLD COURT

By Associated Press
Oshkosh—The Oshkosh League of Women Voters with a representation of about 300, has appealed to President Coolidge and Senators Borah, Lenroot and LaFollette to work for American entry into the permanent court of international justice. A message has been sent to them asking that they try and bring about an amendment of the bill, bringing it back to the original proposals of President Harding and Coolidge and the Republican national convention, it being stated in the telegram: "We fear
a vote for the bill as it now stands is equivalent to a vote against entry of the United States into the court."

THIRTEEN LAFOLLETTE

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—Senator Robert
M. La Follette's thirteen electoral votes as the independent candidate for president were delivered Friday

JONES PARK FLOODED FRIDAY FOR ANNUAL POST-CRESCENT MEET

Jones park Friday afternoon was flooded to a depth of several inches in preparation for the third annual Post-Crescent skating tourney scheduled for Sunday afternoon, and no one will be allowed to use the rink until 2 o'clock on the day of the meet. The ice was thoroughly scraped before the water was turned on and with the weather outlook indicating a cold wave, prospects were that the ice
would be in excellent shape Sunday.

Forty seven entries had been received at 6 P. M. Thursday afternoon when the lists were closed.
The last minute entry of two young women makes it possible to run races for junior girls, and the program now is in the hands of the printers. Numbers have been assigned and may be called for at the Post-Crescent offices before Sunday.

MICHIGAN BEANGROWERS PROTEST GRADE SYSTEM

By Associated Press
Saginaw, Mich.—Unanimous protest against the proposal for a federal system of grading beans was adopted by the Michigan Bean Jobbers association in convention here Friday. It was contended that a uniform grading standard for beans
would constitute discrimination against Michigan grown beans, which because of frequent wet seasons usually have a higher moisture content
than beans grown in other sections.
A committee was named to place
the protest before the interstate commerce commission.

CHANGE IN HOOVER'S STATUS IS UNLIKELY

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—Although transfer of Secretary Hoover from the commerce department to the department of agriculture has been urged upon President Coolidge, no such change in the cabinet lineup now seems likely.
The White House is understood to have received information that Mr.
Hoover himself would not be favorably inclined toward acceptance of the agriculture post, which becomes vacant on March 4.

of Portage was fined $1,500 in federal court here Friday by Judge Claude
Z. Luse, on two counts alleging manufacture and possession of beer of illegal content. On the manufacture count the fine was placed at $1,000
and on the count of possession $500.
The defendant was found guilty by a jury.
A stay of execution was granted until Jan. 30.

THREE DIE WHEN TRAIN HITS CAR AT CROSSING

By Associated Press
Rochester, N. Y.—Three persons were killed in one motor accident here early Friday and eleven were hurt in another.
When the sedan in which they were returning from a dance was struck by a freight train a grade crossing in the Penfield road, Mrs. Lillian De-Bruyner, 40, Thomas Oster, 48, and Oscar J. Kallio, 37, were killed.
Miss Bertha McDowell, 47, who was riding in the rear seat, escaped un-harm.

SIX ARE KILLED IN COAL MINE BLAST

Twenty Seven Children Are Made Fatherless by Fatal Explosion

By Associated Press
Providence R.I.—Twenty seven children were made fatherless late Thursday afternoon when an explosion in the Diamond Coal Co.'s mine snuffed out the lives of six miners who composed the powder gang. One miner escaped. All bodies have been recovered.
A groan arose from the crowd,
which waited throughout the night,
when the last body was brought out Friday. The only miner who escaped was Fini Loston who was driving a mule car near the entrance when the shot occurred. Loston was knocked down and his light extinguished. He groped his way to the entrance and gave the alarm. A slight earth tremor but no smoke marked the accident and Loston's escape probably saved
six other men, due to enter the mine
a short time afterward, from being overcome by poison gas. Eighty-five miners left the mine an hour before the explosion.

SKIDMORE COLLEGE HEAD, WISCONSIN MAN, PASSES

By Associated Press
Saratoga Springs, N. Y.—President
Charles Henry Keyes of Skidmore college died early Friday in New York City, according to word received here.
Dr. Keyes had been president of Skidmore college since 1912. From 1891 to 1896 he was president of Throop Polytechnic institute of instruction and of the national council of education.
Dr. Keyes was born in Readfield, Wis., in 1858, and in early life held many positions in the schools of Wisconsin. Later he was connected with schools in Holyoke, Mass., and in Hartford, Conn. While engaged in educational work in California he was for five years president of the Pasadena Board of Trade.

ORPHAN'S HEIR NAMED AS OFFICIAL OF CHURCH

By Associated Press
Chicago—William A. Shepherd, questioned in connection with the investigation of the death of his wife's ward, William Nelson McClinton, who left him most of his $2,000,000
fortune, has been elected vice president of the congregation of St. Paul Lutheran church of Evanston, a suburb.
At the same time resolutions of complete confidence in the Shepherds were passed and wired to them in Albuquerque, N. M., where they are visiting.

Father, Daughter In State Legislature

Madison—Seldom in legislative annals of any state has there occurred
an instance of parent and child serving together as members of a state legislature. To Wisconsin, this session, goes that distinction.
Visitors to the statehouse, who see an elderly man in a huge fur coat seating a comely miss into the portals of the capitol about session time may recognize them as Senator J. L.
Barber of Marathon and his daughter,
Miss Mildred Barber, assemblywoman.
Senator Barber says it is a proud moment of his career—this business of escorting the young woman into legislative ways. To her he is adviser, father, companion and pal.
But Miss Barber is not altogether new to legislative procedure. Several years ago she came to Madison to become a clerk in the legislature. When the senate was recessed and she was still in the assembly chamber, it is no secret that she saw Senator Barber
in the office near his daughter's desk. It is a manifestation of companionship and a desire for mutual aid, they say.

CITIES SEND MESSAGE TO U. S. CONGRESS

Canada Joins in Message Demanding Government Action in Chicago Case
EKERN TALKS TO CONCLAVE

Wisconsin Attorney Says Chicago Is Looking Only for Pecuniary Profit

Cleveland, O.—Delegates from practically every port on the Great Lakes Friday closed a two day protest meeting against Chicago's diversion of water from the lakes with the adoption of a preamble and protest resolution submitted by the committee on resolutions outlining the conditions under which the water is taken and calling for action by the federal government to improve the situation and avoid the danger to lake navigation.
The resolution of protest, adoption of which was the outstanding business of the conference, will be telegraphed to the secretary of war, secretary of state, Congressman S. Wallace Dempsey, chairman of the house rivers and harbors committee, Senator Medill McCormick of Illinois, chairman of the special senate committee hearing the water question in Washington, and other senators and congressmen.

Frances King, counsel for the Dominion Marine association of Canada
told the delegates Friday morning that Canada is unalterably opposed to any diversion of water at Chicago
and joins in the protest against it.
The association prefers to defer any development of the St. Lawrence river project until the Chicago division matter is settled, he said.

Herman L. Ekern, attorney general of Wisconsin, said the attitude of the Chicago Sanitary district regarding a nine foot navigation channel between Chicago and the Mississippi river "is pure fraud." It is not interested, he said, in navigation in any way. He said the recent supreme court decision definitely decided that any diversion of Lake Michigan water at Chicago in excess of 4,167 cubic feet per second must stop and that measures were underway for a further decision to stop this diversion.
"We insist on the legal right to have these waters flow through the Great Lakes watershed as designed by nature," Mr. Ekern said. "Plainly it is a matter of dollars and cents with Chicago. Wisconsin will stand solidly with this organization for our rights
to carry on lake commerce."

Messrs. King and Ekern were the only formal speakers Friday. William George Bruce, Milwaukee, was unanimously reelected president. A. C. Mc-Ginire, Toronto, James McAlpin, En-
dalo, E. H. Baker, Cleveland, Charles B. Boyd, Detroit and J. A. Scott, Duluth were elected vice presidents.

SLEMP HOPED FOR CABINET BERTH, CLAIM

Resignation Reveals Goings on Behind Scenes, Lawrence
Says
HAS EXECUTIVE TALENTS
Former Private Secretary Had Eyes on Postmaster General Post

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1925 by The Post Pub. Co.
Washington, D. C.—Something of the goings on behind the scenes is revealed in the resignation of C. Bascom Slemp, private secretary to President Coolidge.

Mr. Slemp will be succeeded by Representative Everett Sanders, of Indiana. The situation is rather unparalleled. Mr. Coolidge likes Mr.
Slemp, thinks he is one of the ablest lieutenants a president could have and is sorry to see him go. He could have stayed on indefinitely so far as Calvin Coolidge is concerned.

But Slemp is an executive, an administrative, an active man with talents sufficient to run an executive department. Reputed to be more than a millionaire, he has made a success of private business. As for politics, he engineered Mr. Coolidge's pre-congressional campaign lined up the delegates from the southern states particularly and has a good deal to say about policies and pronouncements
during the campaign itself. His revolt against some of the indiscretions of William M. Butler in handling the "old guard" at the Republican national convention however, was the beginning of the end.

OUTWARD HARMONY

Mr. Slemp had to repress his feelings and play ball. He did. Outwardly there was harmony. Behind the scenes there was not. And when the Coolidge was elected, he has reason to be grateful for the advice of Mr. Slemp. And then came rumors that Mr. Slemp was about to retire.
Published reports had it that he hoped for a cabinet portfolio. Mr.
Slemp said nothing publicly.

Mr. Slemp didn't get the cabinet post and he doesn't blame Mr. Coolidge either, for circumstances more or less beyond the control of his chief are said to have prevented the promotion. There is a possibility that in a year or so Mr. Slemp will be rewarded by a cabinet place.

Mr. Slemp is said to have wanted to be postmaster general. The political aides of Presidents in the past have gone to that department.
George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican national committee at one time, went there. Frank Hitchcock, another Republican chairman, was named postmaster general and in 1918, a Republican chairman in 1920 was the most recent appointee to the same portfolio.

REQUESTED TO REMAIN

Harry New, postmaster general by appointment of President Harding was at one time a Republican national chairman. He has not yet announced whether he intends to stay on though, after Tuesday's cabinet meeting this week, Mr. Coolidge asked him to remain. The story is that when that die was cast, Mr. Slemp's chance to be postmaster general at this time was lost. He left that day for New York on business and while there news of his impending resignation leaked out. It was officially confirmed Thursday.

Just what impelled Mr. Coolidge to ask Mr. New to stay is not yet clear for it is known that apart from the case of Mr. Slemp there were others whose names had been brought forward for the possible vacancy. The impression has been general that Mr. New sought to return to private life for personal reasons. There is said to be some internal politics in the postoffice department which led the president to insist upon Mr.
New's staying in office but it would not be surprising if this was only a temporary affair.

Outwardly the scene is calm and there is no political upheaval. But behind the scenes the pressure for political appointment is at its height
as usual in the days preceding inauguration. The politicians who want the jobs say the incumbents have held on long enough and that other deserving Republicans ought to have a chance. And Mr. Coolidge who recognizes party service as worthy of reward is having a perplexing time meeting the demands of the men who may in 1928 decide the question of another presidential nomination for him.

STAR ANNOUNCES SETTLEMENT OF VANDERLIP SUIT

Wife of New York Financier
Acts in Place of Husband, Seriously Ill

By Associated Press
Marion, O.—A speech made by Frank A. Vanderlip, New York financier, at Briar Cliff, N. Y., a year ago which resulted in a damage suit for $1,200,000 being filed against him by Rod D. Moore and D. H. Brush, publishers of the Marion Star, has become a closed incident through the announcement in the Star Friday that the case had been settled out of court.

With the announcement was published statement authorized by Mrs.
Vanderlip. Mr. Vanderlip is reported seriously ill with typhoid fever.

The statement authorized by Mrs.
Vanderlip follows:
"On account of the grave illness of Mr. Vanderlip he cannot be appraised of the settlement out of court of the suit of Brush and Moore, owners and publishers of the Star against Mr.
Vanderlip. The damage suit grew out of a speech which Mr. Vanderlip made at Briar Cliff a year ago.

"There was no justification for the statement that the price paid President Harding by the present owners was too high or that there was anything sinister about the financial arrangements. President Harding was most scrupulous as to the propriety of the negotiations.

"Mr. Vanderlip would concur in this statement if he were able to speak."
The case was settled out of court
in a conference held at Marion several weeks ago by a representative of Mr. Vanderlip who arrived at the agreement with the publishers.
The Star's announcement did not mention terms of settlement.

NEWSPAPER EDITORS HEAR TALK ON CRIME AND PRESS

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—A program of committee reports and addresses by government officials and attending editors occupied the opening session
Friday of the annual meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

The opening address by Casper E.
Yost of the St. Louis Globe Democrat, president of the society, was followed on the program by a discussion of crime, the law and the press introduced in an address by James M.
Beck, solicitor-general, and led by Herbert Bayard Swope of the New York World, and Willis J. Abbot of
the Christian Science Monitor.

Other speakers listed for Friday included Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical association. President Coolidge is on the program to address the annual dinner Saturday night.

TWO BODIES TAKEN FROM PAINT PLANT IN BLAST

By Associated Press
Chicago—Two bodies, thought to be those of a watchman and a truck driver, were taken from a burning building of the American Paint Co. after an explosion Friday. The paint company, the Frank Lewis Varnish Co., and the City Distributing Co.
gassing the law and the press introduced in an address by James M.
Beck, solicitor-general, and led by
Herbert Bayard Swope of the New York World, and Willis J. Abbot of
the Christian Science Monitor.

Just before the explosion a gasoline truck stopped in front of the building and the driver went inside. The blast tore off the door of the building and flames enveloped and destroyed the truck. Burning gasoline flowed down the street and firemen directed their efforts to prevent it spreading to a number of tanks directly across from the plant.

STATE ORDERS CUT IN MANITOWOC LIGHT RATE

Madison—The state railroad commission Friday ordered reductions of about 20 per cent in the electric lighting rates of the municipal electrical department at Manitowoc.
A slight decrease in the rates for small power installation was also ordered. The total reductions will amount to more than $30,000, it was said.
Commissioners say that the schedule which has been in effect tended to discourage the using of electrical energy by residents.

MEXICANS RELEASE MEMBER OF BADGER BOARD OF CONTROL

Washington, D. C.—Dr. W. F.
Lorenz, chairman of the Wisconsin State Board of Control, the captain and members of the crew of the wrecked schooner, Ruth of Pensacola, Fla., have been released from jail by Mexican authorities at Progreso, Yucatan.
Word of the release which was reported to have been taken place Thursday was received at the state department from the American vice consul at Progreso.
Previous advices received by the department said the men were arrested on order of the port captain
at Progreso charged with filibustering. Investigations showed the charges to be unfounded.

RIVER, HARBOR BILL READY FOR SENATE

Measure Put Through House Thursday Makes no Attempt at Amendments

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—Passed by the house without amendment as to any of the items carried as last reported to committee, the $39,000,000 rivers and harbors authorization bill
now awaits action in the senate.
The measure was put through the house late Thursday by a standing vote of 179 to 6 with no effort to amend or eliminate any of the amounts carried for the 35 projects authorized. In the reduction of approximately $13,000,000 from the amount of the bill as originally reported by the rivers and harbors
committee, the bill represents a compromise between the committee and administration leaders to accord with President Coolidge's program of economy.

POLICE RESTORE ORDER IN MILWAUKEE COUNCIL

Milwaukee—Near fistfights resulted at a meeting Thursday night to consider ways and means for launching a recall of Mayor Daniel Hoan. The meeting was called by those opposed to the action of the mayor in naming as chief of the fire department Peter Steinkeller, a Socialist. Steinkeller was made chief over the heads of a number of captains and assistant chiefs. The partisan attitude of those attending the meeting became so heated that the police stationed about the hall found it necessary to separate members of several groups.
It was found that organization
work could not be completed Thursday night and another meeting was called to consider the work set for Thursday night. The next meeting will be held Monday.

ENGINEERS OPPOSE WATER POWER BILL

Washington, D. C.—Opposition to a pending bill proposing that the federal power commission prepare a comprehensive plan of development of the nation's water power resources to promote power development and navigation was voted at the opening session here today of the American Engineering council.
The council also voted to oppose the Cramton bill to place control of industrial alcohol under a separate prohibition bureau.

An announcement was made of the formation of committees to improve the status of sanitary engineers and engineering and to study the nation's reclamation problem. The question of the establishment of a department of public works is among others up for discussion at the meeting.

to $100,000 Funds Withdrawn for Emergency Fund

By Associated Press
Madison—Congress would be men-dered to protest against the leasing of Muscle Shoals to private interests under a joint resolution adopted by the Wisconsin assembly, 47 to 15,
Friday and sent to the state senate.
The resolution introduced by Julius Klesner, Socialist, Milwaukee, calls upon the federal government to take "immediate steps" to develop and operate the project "for the benefit of the people" and the distribution of cost of its products.
A joint resolution submitted by Assemblyman Robert Caldwell, Republican, Lodi, provides that the legislature adjourn sine die at noon, May
1. It was referred to the committee on rules.

The assembly committee assignments will be announced when that legislature meets again next Tuesday.
Speaker Herman W. Saethen said.
Two bills were sent to the revision committee Friday, one by A. J. Mc-Dowell, Soldiers Grove, would make Armistice day, Nov. 11, a legal holiday and the other by E. E. Meyer, New Richmond, would prohibit the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine composed of a combination of vegetable and mineral oils.
SCHUMANN OFFERS BILL
Senator Schumann also offered a bill limiting to $100,000 the withdrawal of funds from the general fund for the purpose of supplying the emergency fund to appropriate moneys for emergency purposes in running the state government between legislative sessions, unanimous consent of the members of the emergency board, consisting of governor, secretary of state and state treasurer must be obtained
under the bill.

New bills offered in the senate include one by Staudenmeyer providing a penalty in the legislature to any member soliciting the governor for appointment to any office of trust and power in the state.
A bill directed against lobbying
(Barber) by any officers of state, county or municipal government was offered. Senator J. C. Schumann offered several tax bills, one of them referring to the repeal of that portion of the teachers retirement law relating to survivors on incomes and of property taxes and making certain appropriations.

ance to the national Republican party 60 Republican leaders representing seven of the nine counties in this district, organized the Tenth Congressional District Republican club here
Thursday night.
Senator Robert M. LaFollette will not be recognized as a Republican

while the Wisconsin, representation in the national house of representa-

CHANGE THEIR MIND AND GET THEIR CHANGE!

It is said that to change her mind is a woman's privilege.
From that one is left to infer that man is barred from this pleasure, and if he does alter
his ideas any, it requires su-perhuman effort to make him.
The other day, Mrs. F. A.
Zahrt, 825 Prospect street, had two coats she wished to sell,
so to accomplish this quickly,
she advertised in the Post-
Crescent classified section.
Among those answering the ad
was a gentleman who said he'd be there the next day. Right then the little ad showed its strength, for instead of coming
the next day, the gentleman changed his mind and arrived
during the next half hour and bought the coats.
When YOU have goods to sell, change their minds and get their change by calling 543
and asking for an ad-taker.

Jennings, treasurer, showed the church to be in the best financial condition ever recorded despite expenditures of about $5,000 during the last year on repairs and reconstruction of the church and parsonage.

PLAN PAGEANT

F. J. Harwood announced that a pageant and several other elaborate events were in preparation for observance of the church's seventy-fifth anniversary in October at the same time the state congregational conference meets in Appleton.

Dr. H. E. Peabody described the chance to the church night suppers and Sunday night motion picture services as the means of meeting the modern problem of distraction from religious interest. He announced a desire to use the Easter self-denial offering this year to swell the missionary gift to the congregational boards. He also told of plans for a week's religious revival here just before Easter with Dr. Charles H. Beale, Milwaukee, as the speaker. Noon meetings at Appleton theatre are part of the plan.

The church received 71 members during the year, dropped 20, granted letters to 15 and lost 9 by death, leaving a total of 1,426.

One of "The Gang" comedies and a news reel were shown after the business session.

Mrs. H. F. Hall attended a bridge party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Becker at Seymour Thursday evening.

G. F. Singer of Madison, was an Appleton business visitor Thursday.

SCHOETTL LEAVES
FOR STILES PARISH

The Rev. Francis Schoettl, pastor of St. John Catholic church, Little Chute, left Thursday for Stiles to take charge as pastor of St. Patrick church. His transfer recently was announced by Bishop Paul P. Rhode, head of Green Bay diocese.

Money enough to buy an automobile was taken with the priest when he left, through the generosity of his former parishioners.

A farewell party was held Tuesday night in the basement of St. John church, with about 250 attending. He was presented at that time with a purse with instructions that the money was to be used to buy a car. Children of St. John parochial school presented him with a quantity of preserves Tuesday morning.

Official Addresses Chamber of Commerce Board With Regard to Plans

Appleton's augmented express service will begin March 1, according to a statement of George N. Weaver, traveling auditor of American Railway Express Co., who met with the board of directors of the chamber of commerce at a luncheon at Conway hotel Wednesday noon. W. N. Klimball, local agent, also was present.

Mr. Weaver declares that a double wagon will be put into operation in the business district at that time, meaning a much more rapid delivery of the most important freight. This plan was attempted sometime ago and abandoned, he said, because the double wagon could not pass beneath the overhead building in the Conway hotel Whedon alley. The chamber has been informed that this obstacle is to be removed and protruding buildings also shortened.

Much more rapid delivery could be accomplished if the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Co. would furnish better depot facilities, Mr. Weaver said. A place is needed large enough to route goods as unloaded from the cars. Considerable extra handling now is entailed. He said a building ought to be provided large enough to contain the office and a large receiving station as well.

Mrs. C. C. Nielson and daughter, Jean of Milwaukee, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Heins 776 North Division st.

TRUCK DRIVER PROVIDES
"SHOW" FOR PEDESTRIANS

After several efforts and much hard work on the part of the driver, a truck owned by Lutz Bros. Ice Co., heavily loaded with ice, was able to climb Pearl st. hill Thursday noon. On the first attempt the truck slid back toward the foot of the hill after it had climbed nearly to the top, narrowly missing the Inter-city bus which was on its way up the hill. After several more efforts, during which a large crowd collected to watch the "fun," the truck made the top by a slow climb. Both rear chains were worn through and fell from the wheels.

J. J. Sherman and daughter, Miss Marie Sherman, will leave Saturday for San Antonio, Tex., and California. At Chicago they will be joined by Miss Agnes Sherman, who is to accompany them. They will visit Mr. Sherman's son, Dr. A. Edward Sherman, at San Antonio.

HALF OF NEW HOUSE NUMBERS ASSIGNED TO HOUSE OWNERS

Appleton residents continue to flock to the city hall in quest of their new house numbers now being distributed by the street department. While some call for them as they come to pay their taxes, and thus save themselves an extra trip, others call for their numbers by telephone. The work keeps several employees busy. More than half of the numbers have been assigned.

Many a queer incident comes to light in the distribution of numbers. Some residents were able to save the price of a new number plate by being assigned the identical number they had used before. Others were able to retain the metal numbers they have by merely transposing them. Still others were fortunate enough enough to exchange numbers with their neighbors. Hardware stores and ten-cent stores are doing a good business in house numbers and are constantly running short of the more common numbers such as 1, 2 and 3.

Mail carriers are complaining that some patrons are already using their new addresses without having attached the new number beside the old ones. Parcels are being received that are addressed with the new numbers, and carriers are finding it difficult to locate the addressees. The postmaster has requested that both the old and new numbers be left over the doors until Feb. 1 when the old ones are to be removed. The new numbers are not to be used in addresses, however, until after that date.

CATLIN ON BOARD FOR U. OF C. DRIVE

Chicago—The appointment of Mark S. Catlin, Appleton attorney, as a member of the committee which is to conduct the nationwide campaign for $17,500,000 for the University of Chicago was announced here by Harold H. Swift, the packer, chairman of the board of trustees of the university.

Others from Wisconsin named: Roger Kimball, Kenosha; Rudy D. Matthews, Milwaukee; Thomas E. Coleman, Madison; John F. Crawford, Beloit; Dr. R. W. Kispert, Green Bay; Dr. John F. Leval, La Crosse; Charles I. Yule, Oshkosh and Miss Edna E. Hood, Racine.

Mr. Catlin, who is a graduate of the University of Chicago in the class of 1906, will direct campaign activities in the Appleton district.

The trustees of the university, the announcement stated, have already pledged $1,670,800 toward the $17,500,000 fund. Of the funds raised in the drive, $6,500,000 will be devoted to the endowment of instruction and research, and $11,000,000 to the erection of new buildings.

installed, and this work will require about two or three weeks.

The company has already begun handling milk on a small scale, but full operation will not begin until Feb. 1. It will engage in the business of pasteurizing and shipping milk, cream, butter and cheese. Proprietors are W. C. Vilharmis, A. F. Peterson and A. A. Fraser.

PAVING WILL HALT TRAFFIC ON BRIDGE

Neenah Short-cut Will Become Popular When Improvements Are Finished

What effect the newly constructed Cherry-st bridge will have on inter-city automobile traffic is still a matter for conjecture. Although Highways 15 and 18 are now routed over that bridge on the highway map, the road on the south side of the bridge will not be paved for another year at least, while the route on the north end of the bridge will be torn up this coming season by the paving on Cherry and Richmond-sts.

When the roads are improved, the route will appeal to a large number of motorists as a preference to the Lake-st route, as it will be a shorter and faster run to Neenah and Menasha.

What advantage the motorbuses will take of the new route is still indeterminate. A. C. Homan, proprietor of the Homan Auto Bus company, says he has not given the matter much thought but might favor the new route after Cherry-st bridge has extended straight through to Foster-st, as it would be a speedier route. If the Appleton-Neenah bus routes would be changed to lead over the Cherry-st bridge, a local bus might be provided for Fourth ward local traffic, he said.

SPENCER WILL SEEK RETURN TO BENCH

Municipal Judge Is Candidate to Succeed Himself at April Election

Judge A. M. Spencer, for nine years municipal judge and the second man to preside over municipal court of this county, will be a candidate to succeed himself in office at the coming election, which will be held on Tuesday, April 7.

The Judge is one of the pioneer members of the bar in this county. Besides practicing law privately he has served the city of Appleton as city attorney and the county as district attorney. He was elected judge of the municipal court to succeed Thomas H. Ryan when he retired from that office. Judge Spencer's first term was for four years, but since then the terms have been lengthened to six years. The present one, like that of county judge, will expire on Jan. 1, 1926.

The only judicial offices to be voted upon next spring are those of municipal and county judges. The election of a circuit judge for this district will not occur until two years later. Nomination papers for the offices of municipal and county judge are to be filed with the county clerk between 40 and 20 days before the election.

CHICAGO'S CRIME PROBLEM
Chicago appears to be undergoing a moral awakening. At least, it has temporarily roused itself sufficiently to look its criminal picture in the face. A crime commission created by the commercial and civic interests of the city has investigated the conditions which have made Chicago the greatest crime center in America, if not in the world. Public meetings are being held and the problem discussed with a degree of frankness not hitherto known. The crime commission charges that the police department is not efficient, and the accusation is vigorously repelled by the chief of police. It is asserted that the courts, that is the state courts, are under the control of vice, corruption and crime itself.

Crime is organized in Chicago in much the same fashion that politics is organized there and elsewhere. In some of its ramifications it is in close alliance with politics. The forces which unite to protect bootlegging and the liquor traffic, protect murder, rape and robbery. Wealth and outward respectability lift no hand against this supremacy of organized crime. It does not do so for the reason that it is a particeps criminis. It is frequently singled and sometimes badly burned by violence, but it remains under cover, willing to take the chances that are minimized by the self-protection money affords. Crime has gained the ascendancy in Chicago since bootlegging became a colossal business that catered to wealth and respectability. There undoubtedly is close connection between the two.

Unless we are greatly mistaken, the good people of Chicago will go only so far in the move to suppress crime. They will not go so far as to suppress it where it inconveniences them or extinguishes their self-appointed right to violate law at their own pleasure or whim. It is a question if they would not rather have murder and liquor than no murder and no liquor.

The suppression of crime in Chicago means an uprising that puts down, and is willing to keep down, all lawlessness. There can be no reservations nor half way measures. It must strike at the well-stocked cellar and source of supply of the gold coast millionaire, as well as at the thug and the bandit. If it is going to permit bootlegging to flourish in defiance of the constitution and laws of the United States and of the state of Illinois, it will never be able to stay the hand of the gunman. The organized crime which supports our supports both. They are inseparable. How can Chicago purify itself under such circumstances? It is, we think, a safe answer to say that it will not, for the same reason that wealth, respectability and the so-called morality of the city will not assert themselves to the extent of sacrificing their own pleasures. There is something more than murder and violence involved. It is the sanctity and supremacy of all law.

HEEDING THE ELECTION
A great difference has come over congress in its attitude toward the president. A year ago congress, and it is the same congress as is now in session, treated with scant respect the opinions, recommendations and policies of the man who had succeeded to the presidency through the death of Mr. Harding. It over-ruled him on the world court, the bonus, on the Japanese immigration question, on taxation and other important measures, and disagreed with him on minor matters, from the postal increase down. Whatever Mr. Coolidge advocated congress was certain to oppose. This applied to both the domestic and international field. Mr. Lodge sought to control our foreign policies to the exclusion of the president and secretary of state. Mr. Coughens, Mr. McCormick and others obstructed his program at home. There was apparently no more consideration for the White house than if it had been without an occupant.

Then came the election. Mr. Coolidge went over on a landslide that made the politicians and congress gasp with amazement. They never dreamed that the man they had trifled with and showed scant respect for stood so high in the esteem of the American people and was of such vote-getting strength. The election transformed an obstructive congress into a society of cup-bearers. It could not work fast enough or ardently enough to tune in on the presidential wave.

In the short time congress has been in session it has sustained the veto of the postal salary bill, it has withdrawn its criticism of the navy, has abandoned gun elevation, has stilled its voice against Japan and has cast aside proposals such as that of Rep. Britten for a conference of white races of the Pacific. No one in either house has risen to denounce the president personally, and even the Democrats are extolling him. The irreconcilables, farmer-laborites and progressives, some of whom are nearing the end of their public careers, remain silent. The president seems to have congress under his thumb. If that is so with the old congress he should have no trouble with the new congress. It will be a wholesome change and is what the country needs. There is seldom leadership in congress worthy of the name. Leadership, if there is such a thing, must come from the White house. The election in November was a vote of confidence in Calvin Coolidge. Congress will do well to recognize this fact and defer to the judgment and policy of the president.

ALWAYS ROOM AT THE TOP
Young men who are wondering what line of work to follow will be interested in this. So will others who already started, find the road to success rough and steep.

Each year American industry needs 40,000 new mining, electrical, hydraulic and other engineers. Yet our engineering colleges are graduating only 9000 a year. So claims the National Industrial Conference Board.

Colonel Barbour, editor of Mining and Metallurgy, challenges the board's claim. He says: "Nothing could be more absurd. Moreover, such a statement is tragically harmful to the current graduate and the young man who is about to decide on an engineering course of study. The engineering profession is already overcrowded."

Every business is over-crowded, for that matter, except branches of skilled labor where strict union rules hold down the number of apprentices.

As far as mere numbers are concerned, we have too many engineers, too many doctors, too many lawyers, too many newspapermen, too many architects, too many retailers—and so on, the list is virtually endless.

No matter what you decide to "take up," you find that a disheartening army of others has the same inclination. Even in aviation there is a waiting list.

No field exists in which success is easy. The fact that success is difficult proves the existence of sharp competition—over-crowding.

But over-crowding is mainly due to the presence of a multitude of incompetents. For every general, there are thousands of privates who haven't the makings of a general, who couldn't make good at the top no matter how often opportunity knocked at the door.

There are many electrical engineers, but only one Edison. Many surgeons, but only a few Crites and Mayos. Many criminal lawyers, but only a few Darrows.

Plenty of room at the top, for the right man. If you are confident that you have the ability and stick-to-it-iveness to make good, young fellow, go ahead. Don't falter, don't weaken, don't be discouraged by "over-crowding."

A business, trade or profession may be over-crowded with numbers—but never with ability.

They say the movies have been cleaning house. We knew they had been cleaning up at the box office.
Model husbands, so a young lady tells us, are not built for speed.
It often takes just a little knocking to drive home a point.

Health Talks
BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician And Author
Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

RIGHT ME IF I'M WRONG.
My teaching is so simple and clear, in regard to the nature and cause of those respiratory diseases which are wrongly called "colds" that even a child can understand it. I maintain that there is no danger or harm in "exposure" in any circumstances, except frostbite and sunburn. "Exposure" in any circumstances, is merely a question of personal comfort, not a hygienic question at all. One may suffer from exposure even when frostbite or sunstroke does not occur; but one is in no danger of any illness therefrom and certainly one is not predisposed to any of the respiratory diseases by such sufferings. That is the only conclusion we can draw from general human experience and from scientific experimentation. I may be wrong about this. If I am I hope somebody will show me.

I have already challenged physicians, sanitarians, hygienists and public health authorities to point out any flaw in my arguments or position on this question. I invite any reader who discerns a flaw or anything illogical in my teachings to point it out in a letter not too long to work into my limited space here.

Write me if I'm wrong, but don't tell me how Mr. Jones took cold and died after getting his feet wet or his neck shaved, for that is neither evidence nor argument but just history. If you can tell me how Mr. Jones has just had the misfortune to get his feet wet or his neck shaved and the doctors entertain no hope for his recovery, that will be great stuff and I'll be glad to tell as much of the world as possible about it here—provided Mr. Jones does actually succumb according to plan.

It is a little curious, but one never hears of a prophecy of that kind getting into the newspapers. Predictions of death from exposure or dampness so rarely come true! Somehow people are never very certain about the wet feet or neck shave until after Mr. Jones has passed away. Even the public health guardians who from time to time warn the people against getting the feet wet or the neck shaved in this cold damp weather, never seem to detect cases like that in time to call public attention to the inevitable result or to rush to the aid of the unfortunate a health department car with a hot mustard foot bath or a nice warm muffler. Health officers in Janesville and Buffalo recently warned people about the dangers of wet feet, and a Buffalo health officer advised those who by bad luck planted their feet on a muddy sidewalk to take a hot mustard foot bath immediately. I suppose health officers feel that they have gone far enough with their great work of preventing disease when they warn folks to keep dry. They assume it ain't gonna rain no more.

Some readers may remember that I have definitely asserted from time to time that no medicine, food, nutriment or poison is absorbed through the unbroken skin. That has brought many interesting letters from people who imagine things are absorbed through the skin, but no evidence to indicate that anything may be absorbed in that way. I hope that the testimony that I shall receive in reference to the "exposure" question will be more substantial. If you think you have some evidence, send it in. I've already admitted I may be wrong.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
Neuritis.
Please send me your leaflet on the causes of neuritis, symptoms and treatment. (A. G. A.)
Answer.—I have none. Neuritis means inflammation of a nerve, any nerve. Among the causes are chronic poisoning with lead, arsenic, alcohol; injury of the nerve; abnormal pressure upon it; extension of inflammation from a neighboring place (as in some cases involving the facial nerve in the course of acute middle ear inflammation or mastoiditis); toxins, as in some cases of diphtheria, typhoid fever and influenza; abnormalities of metabolism, such as diabetes. This general view is enough to indicate how impossible it would be to answer your request without writing a formidable volume or two on the subject. The popular notion of "neuritis" as a specific explanation for vague pains or infirmities is without basis in fact. (Copyright, National Newspaper Service)

Judges have their troubles too. Now one of these June brides has called up His Honor on the telephone to ask him if the word "cherish" does not imply shaking down the furnace.

Well, winter has loafed with us for about a month officially but we have still to hear the first sleighbells. Who can wax poetical over the clank-clank of tire chains anyway?

"Snap out of it!" I told her snappily.

She was too much in love, however, so I had to snap my fingers and I believe I snapped them three times before she did snap out of it.

"Don't bother me!" she snapped. "Jus' napping, you know. I think I've got too soft a snap here with nothing to do but read snappy stories."

With that she suddenly departed and on her return snapped her fingers gleefully, declaring she had a much snappier job in a ginger snap factory. This napping business thus ended for her, giving the story a snappy conclusion.

PASSING OF A FRIEND
Editor Post-Crescent: Even though I am located some 2,000 miles from your beautiful city, one of the bright cities in the state of Wisconsin, located in Outagamie, my home for nearly sixty years, I am yet a subscriber to the Post-Crescent.

In the month of June, in the year of 1883 I paid my first subscription to the Appleton Weekly Post. The solicitor was George M. Miller then identified with the Post but now deceased. Have been a subscriber continually with hardly a break during those 57 years.

I note with deep regret the death of my former pioneer friend, Thomas E. Reid. As I was secretary of the Outagamie County Pioneers' Association, naturally I was closely in touch with Mr. Reid. I recall at one time, several years ago, when the writer of this article was chairman of a committee for the purpose of engaging a speaker to deliver the annual address at the convention of County Pioneers on Washington's birthday. In presenting the nature of my call, Mr. Reid's answer was, "What, me deliver an address before the County Pioneers? Say, Mr. Secretary, I couldn't deliver an address before that body of old settlers on a bet." But I said I presumed his name was entered on the program as previously formulated, and now ready for publication. I shall never forget that pleasant expression as I was departing from the office. "Well, say, I see you know your business and have got me trapped, so say to the old boys, I'll be there."

The address I believe can be found in the back records of the pioneers, entered by myself, and can be observed with much interest. We note also the swiftness of the passing of date, of many pioneer associates and friends, and well we may say, they rest in peace, and at the final call, their names will be recorded in the great book of records, prepared for that great occasion.
Very truly and sincerely I subscribe myself,
W. M. Robblee,

Chinese Junks Oldest Vessels

(From The Yachting Monthly London.)
The oldest seagoing vessels of the world are the junks of Yellow sea of China. These junks are "highly decorated vessels with tall poops and round sides, reminiscent of the days of Drake and Columbus. Junks of this type are in existence still which were built in the time of Kien Lung, say some 150 years ago."
Referring to the sailing peculiarities of the junk, the writer says, "A junk will not heave to, and John Chinaman is fully aware of this. He does not even try; his plan is far simpler. He lets his halyards go with a run, and the sail is off his vessel in a moment. The high poop acts as a riding mizzen and brings him head to wind; the low bow prevents him from falling off the wind. If the blow is likely to last any time, he lays out a sea anchor. His next procedure is to burn a joss stick and probably a few pieces of paper to his household god. After that, as there is nothing more to do except eat or sleep—he does so."

Adventures In The Library
By ARNOLD MULDER

IS THE SAVAGE THE ONLY TRUE POET?
You will find the interesting suggestion in Macaulay's "Essay on Milton" that the savage is the real and only genuine poet, that as man becomes relatively more civilized he becomes relatively less of a natural born poet, that hence it is a much greater honor to produce a great poem in a highly civilized age than in days of savagery.
The argument runs something like that. I don't know if I have stated it exactly because I haven't the "Essay on Milton" at hand and it is 20 years since I had it. Macaulay, as I remember it, was trying to make Milton doubly great because he wrote in a highly civilized age when poetry might be expected to be at a relatively low ebb.

IS IT TRUE?
It is an interesting theory, but the question is, is it true? recently I came across something like the same idea in Carlyle. On the face of it it was not the same idea at all but it was at least a second cousin to Macaulay's theory. Discussing Odin and the mythology of the early Scandinavians Carlyle points out that the savage people personified all the facts of nature. "Thunder was not mere electricity, vitreous or resinous; it was the god Donner (Thunder) or Thor—god also of beneficent, summer-heat. The thunder was his wrath; the gathering of the black clouds is the drawing-down of Thor's angry brows; the fire-bolt bursting out of the heaven is the all-rending hammer flung from the hand of Thor."
To us in a scientific age lightning is electricity, a phenomenon of nature, which even though we cannot entirely explain it is nevertheless merely a fact. We do not surround it with beautiful imagery of the thunder god. In the case of thunder mankind has undoubtedly lost a great deal in poetry as it has gained in scientific knowledge.
And that is true of a great many of the facts of nature. The spirit of poetry is the spirit of childlike wonder at things, of dreaming beautiful dreams about the things we see all about us. But if every single thing we see and hear and feel and smell and taste is explained by science, catalogued and card-indexed, what are we going to dream about and what is a poetic nature to be poetic about?
NOT WHOLLY ENLIGHTENED
So on the face of it it looks very much as if Macaulay's theory is entirely correct and as if the savage is the only real poet. But that does not take into consideration that enlightenment is only relative. We are no longer savages but either we are completely civilized, and at the present rate it will probably take several million years more before we are completely enlightened, science has explained a few, a very few, things like thunder and the courses of the stars and the march of the seasons and the eclipse of the moon. It has removed some subjects from the realms of poetry to the realms of prosaic facts. But for every fact it has thus lighted up there are a hundred million facts that are as great mysteries to us today as they were to the Scandinavians thousands of years ago. There does not seem to be any danger that the poets of this earth will run out of material for a few million years yet.
On the contrary, it is possible to take the opposite side of the argument from Macaulay and maintain that there are more subjects for the poet's pen today than there were in the days of savagery. Science has solved some mysteries but it has made us conscious of many others that the savage did not dream of. Take the atom—it cannot be seen, but it is a little bundle of mystery by the side of which the mystery of the thunder as the savage saw it, is as clear as day. The thrilling life within the atom is food for endless speculation.
And there is human personality. To the savage the human being was largely a body—the soul was an afterthought. To the modern man the mysteries of the subconscious, the race thoughts expressed in the individual, the thousand and one questions that mark the human life on the edge of the turning, inexhaustible material for the poet as well as for the scientist.

The Question Box
(Any reader can get the answer to any question by writing The Appleton Post-Crescent Information Bureau, Frederick J. Hawkins, Director, Washington, D. C. This offer applies strictly to information. The Bureau cannot give advice on legal, medical, and financial matters. It does not attempt to settle domestic troubles, nor to undertake exhaustive research on any subject. Give your question plainly and briefly. Give full name and address and send postage. All replies are sent direct to the inquirer.)

Q. Should the City and State be written on the same line on an envelope? E. F.
A. The Post Office Department prefers them on separate lines. This is a valuable postal emergency to classify the mail more rapidly.
Q. What per cent of milk is water? E. T.
A. There is 87 per cent in whole milk and in skimmed milk 90.5 per cent.
Q. If a foreigner comes over on a foreign ship as a seaman, can he get a job in a factory here? J. T.
A. The Bureau of Immigration says that a seaman may have 60 days in this country before he is considered a deserter from his ship and after that he is a subject for deportation.
Q. What was the plague which visited Athens? J. P.
A. Authorities do not know definitely just what disease was referred to as the plague in Athens. According to the description by Thucydides, the plague ravaged Athens in the second year of the Peloponnesian War, 430 B. C. A large percentage of the population had taken refuge in the city and subsequently the number of deaths was great. The epidemic does not seem to have been the real oriental plague.

ANOTHER DARK MYSTERY IS RUN DOWN BY SLEUTHS

Mysterious shots in the night, loud reports and hints at robbers in the First ward have all been run down to earth. No longer will residents of this part of the town be puzzled when their slumbers are rudely awakened by spooky sounds issuing from the vicinity of the First ward school. The disturber of the peace is none other than Jack Frost, who keeps time on the ice rink of the ward after it has been flooded. The loud reports, first warders say, are caused by the ice.

THREE GENERATIONS OF WOMEN

Since the humble origin of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in 1881, made on a kitchen stove, three generations of women have used this old-fashioned root and herb remedy for their ailments with wonderful success. Very often we hear of families where the grandmother, mother and daughter testify to its virtue. This accounts for the astounding growth and demand for this dependable medicine from all over the United States and from many foreign countries as well.

Kaukauna RepresentativeADOPT NEW PLAN
FOR EXAMINATIONS
IN HIGH SCHOOLNo Free Time for Students Who Are Exempt from Writing
Tests

Kaukauna — A new plan of conducting semester examinations will be introduced in the high school next Tuesday. Instead of giving the students a half day for each examination and allowing them to remain away from school when they have no exams, school officials have decided to conduct the usual daily program and will give a quiz which can easily be written during the regular class period.

"Exams" will continue from Tuesday until Friday. No student will be required to take more than one each day unless he is taking more than one subject which is offered for only a half term. The short answer type of questions will be given. English and algebra will be offered Tuesday, Latin, history and chemistry will occupy Wednesday and the commercial subjects will be written Thursday. Friday will be devoted to subjects which are offered for the first semester only.

MANSKE IS CHOSEN
SCOUT ASSISTANTAnnual New London Boy Scout Rally Date Is Set for March
3 at K. C. Hall

Special to the Post-Crescent

New London — Hadrian Manske was unanimously elected assistant scout master of boy scout troop No. 2 of New London, at its weekly meeting in the city hall Thursday evening. He will act as a non-commissioned officer of the troop, however, since he is not quite 18 years of age as required by the national boy scout council for an assistant scout master.

Manske, who will act as assistant to Scoutmaster H. P. Freeling, has for many years been an active scout. He was recently transferred to the division of associate scouts, but decided to come back to the troop again.

The election of the new assistant scoutmaster was referred to the local scout commission for official approval Friday morning.

The troop also set the date for the annual scout rally for 1925, which will be held in the Knights of Columbus hall Monday, March 3. Admission will be free, and everyone is invited to attend.

The troop will leave on a hike under direction of the newly elected assistant scoutmaster, Hadrian Manske, at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, leaving from the officer's home.

The meeting of the troop next week will be held in the local armory, where the troop will practice for the rally, and will also spend part of the evening in playing basketball. The meeting of the week following will probably be held in Knights of Columbus hall.

H. S. EXAMS ARE HELD FOR FIRST SEMESTER

Special to Post-Crescent

New London — The local high school held its final first semester examinations Friday. The regular exemption lists, which bore the names of all students standing at 90 or better in their class, were read just before the tests began. This has been a custom in the local high school for the last few years, and this year's exemption list contained numerous students who were exempt in one or more subjects.

The second semester will commence on Monday, Jan. 19, when the report cards for the past semester will be given out. Very few students have made application for permission to carry five subjects instead of four. These during the second semester are considered above the average and must keep up a standing average of 85 while carrying the extra subject. Five seniors made application for five subjects. Three will be granted. Two out of the three juniors applying will be permitted to carry the extra work, and the one sophomore that applied will receive permission.

Students have been asked to bring used text books to the office, for sale when the second semester commences.

PUT TIME CLOCKS
ON POLICE BEATSFive Are Installed and Patrolmen Will Be Required to Register Rounds

New London — From now on the night patrolmen of the city police force will have to punch a time clock. Clocks purchased several weeks ago were stored in the city hall until Tuesday, when the city electrical crew began to install them.

There will be five clocks in the city. Two new stations recently decided upon are in the rear of the Farmers State bank and the rear of the First National bank. The other three stations will be located at the south end of the Pearl-st bridge, at the intersection of South Pearl-st and Beacon-ave and at the corner of North Water and Shawano-sts.

The clocks will be automatically wound from the city clerk's office in the city hall. The night patrolmen will be obliged to punch them at regular intervals throughout the night.

The first debate of the league will be held on Friday evening, Feb. 20. New London's negative team, the first to travel will go to Waupaca, to clash with Waupaca's affirmative, and Manawa's negative team will meet New London affirmative at New London if this agreement is agreeable to the other two schools. The contest will be a decision debate, with three expert judges supervising it.

DOUBT LEGALITY OF FOURTH WARD JUNIOR SCHOOL

COUNCIL SEEKS LEGAL OPINION ON EXPENDITURE

Aldermen Reject Bids for Furnishing City With New Machinery

Legality of the appropriation of $20,000 from the junior high school fund for the remodeling of a part of the fourth ward school into a junior high was questioned at a meeting of the common council Thursday evening, when that body received a resolution from the board of education requesting that the city begin carrying out the project. Mayor Goodland said he was not opposed to the project, but in order that the board of public works might not be held liable for illegal procedure in the matter, he suggested that the question first be submitted to the city attorney for an opinion as to its legality. Alderman Thompson asked if plans and specifications had been drawn. The impression was that they had not. The alderman then concluded that the council or board of public works had not authority to proceed in the matter until the board of education had prepared plans. McMillan HAS WARNING While consenting to the proposal of referring the legal dispute to the city attorney, Alderman McMillan of the fourth ward said he wanted "the council to bear in mind that some of the best attorneys of the city recommended to the council a year ago that $20,000 be taken from the bond issue to remodel the Fourth district school. "For that reason," he said, "I would advise you to be very careful how you spend those $20,000."

Alderman Thompson asked the fourth ward alderman if it were not true that $20,000 is now considered insufficient for the enterprise, and that $50,000 is now suggested. Mr. McMillan replied that it would not be amiss to appropriate more money for the project. Mr. Thompson retorted that if it were illegal to spend $20,000 for other purposes would be just as illegal to appropriate $50,000 more. The discussion in the council ended with an agreement to await the decision of the city attorney on the question.

REJECT BIDS No contract was awarded at the meeting for the purchase of snow removal equipment. All bids had been opened previously by the street and cleaning committee. Upon the recommendation of that committee, it was decided to reject all bids except those on 10-ton tractors and snow plows and to hold these back for further investigation.

A total of 1,500 feet of fire hose were ordered purchased by the common council. Acting upon the recommendation of the fire and water committee, the council distributed orders of 500 feet each among the United States Rubber company, the Manhattan Rubber company and the Effateral Fire Hose company. The board of public works recommended that $25,000 of the 20 percent of the contract price held back on the payment for work on the Cherry street bridge be turned over immediately to the Wagon Iron works, builders of the bridge. The proposal was approved. Tax rebates were allowed upon the report of that committee to about 20 residents whose claims for home-stead exemption had been missed through error. Rebates were allowed also to several owners of automobiles which were assessed wrong, for such reasons as report of the wrong car. The Johnson oil burner which had been installed on a lot in the city hall was accepted upon recommendation

BUS OWNERS JOIN IN WAITING STATION

Interurban bus lines are cooperating in the maintenance of a bus terminal which has been opened in the Hotel Northern on Washington-st. All bus lines except the Xenash, Kaukauna and Kimberly lines are associated in the enterprise, and include the Green Bay, Sheboygan, Manitowish, New London, Waupesa and the city local lines. A waiting room with a large number of chairs has been provided and an attendant has been placed in charge. It is planned later to operate a refreshment stand at the station.

TWO SPEAKERS ADDRESS KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

About 50 members of the Knights of Columbus attended the meeting Thursday evening in Catholic Home, Judge Blount of Fond du Lac spoke on Englishhood, and P. O. Kelcher, valley scout executive discussed the Boy Scouts. A smoker and lunch followed the business meeting. A party has been planned for Jan. 22. Cards and dancing will furnish amusement.

tion of the public grounds and building committee.

Other recommendations of the same committee for changes in office quarters were adopted. They were the removal of the water department offices to those of the assessor and federal revenue collector; the removal of the assessor's office to the private office of the city engineer, and the turning over of the vacated water department office space to the engineering department. The water department will pay office rent at the price of $100 a month, instead of the $40 a month now paid.

A tax of approximately $5,400 was paid by the First Trust company under protest and notice of this procedure was served on the council together with warning that steps will be taken to recover.

Louis Luebke, electrical inspector of the fire department, was given permission to attend the annual state convention of electrical inspectors. A petition for a sewer on Winnebago from Mason-st to State-st was received.

A communication was received from the city council of Racine asking for cooperation in a movement to have the present organization of the state railroad commission abolished and the old commission reinstated. This commission would have control only of steam and interurban railroads and not over the other public utilities. No action was taken on this communication other than receiving it and placing it on file.

How to Banish Piles

Thousands Bless Dr. Leonhardt, the Physician Who Discovered This Common Sense Remedy If you think that the surgeon's knife is the only method of escape from the misery of piles, it's because you haven't heard of the new treatment known as Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID. The Doctor's treatment is internal. By experiment for years he discovered the exact cause of piles and then went further and compounded a remedy that would remove the cause. Dr. Leonhardt wants every sufferer to benefit by his discovery and so that there will be no doubting or delay, Schlintz Bros. and all druggists are authorized to sell HEM-ROID with guarantee that it will do as stated or money back. On that honorable basis every sufferer should secure a package of Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID today. adv.

JURY AWARDS TIFT $250 IN REALTY DEAL

C. R. Tift, real estate dealer, was awarded $250 by a jury of six men who heard his suit against E. K. Olson of Valders to recover $400 for services rendered in connection with the sale of Olson's property. Olson declared he did not owe Tift as he had not listed his property with him. He asserted that the man who bought his property was Tift's client and therefore, he, Olson, owed nothing to Tift. Rooney and Grogan represented the plaintiff, while Bradford and Bradford represented the defendant. The case was tried in municipal court before Judge A. M. Spencer.

WISCONSIN WEATHER

Generally fair tonight and Saturday except snow tonight in extreme east portion. Moderate cold wave tonight in east and south portion. Rising temperature Saturday in west portion.

GENERAL WEATHER CONDITIONS

The low pressure area advancing southwestward from the Rocky mountains region has now reached eastern Texas with a trough northeast to the lake region. A secondary center appears over Lake Michigan. Rain or snow has been general over the Gulf coast, northward, and snow is probable here this afternoon and evening. High pressure is moving southward across the plain states, following the "low" with zero temperature over the northern plains. This will spread its influence to this section tonight and Saturday as the move eastward. Lower pressure is appearing over Alberta, so that cold weather is not expected to last long.

RADIO PROGRAMS

Harry M. Snodgrass left Missouri state prison a free man Friday morning. He was accompanied by his wife and eight-year old child who had been present at his Wednesday evening concert and were waiting at the prison gates. He took with him almost $4,000 as a tribute from the many radio friends he has made from WOS. He has signed a vaudeville contract for two years to play all the larger cities, with Don Witten. WOS announcer, as his manager. Mr. Witten took second honors in a national announcer's popularity contest recently. An attempt is being made by a group of local radio dealers and entertainers to bring the "king of the airwaves" to Appleton for a concert.

Don't start relogging KDKA yet. The station's wavelength has been changed from 326 to 309 meter temporarily, according to an announcement from the Westinghouse Electric Co. This is only for the time being. When a new wavelength is fixed, announcements will be sent out. WJJD has gone up on the scale. Be sure and log this station again so that none of its excellent late organ recitals will be missed.

Friday night brings another of the series of concerts by the United States Navy Band, which are performing in the auditorium of the U. S. Marine Barracks in Washington, D. C., and broadcast simultaneously by WEA, New York, WCAP, Washington and WEEL Boston. This is a treat that no radio fan will want to miss.

WEAF has a feature program as an addition to the Navy Band. The program includes dance music by Jack Albini's Hotel Bossart orchestra; harmonica selections under the auspices of the Hohner Harmony group; recital by Nancy McCord, soprano; the weekly appearance of the old favorites, Billy Jones and Earnest Hare; a group of piano selections by Irving Firstenberg; "Novelty Blues" pianist; an hour of popular dance music by Meyer Davis' Lido Venice orchestra.

The Steinway-- When you buy a Steinway you know that you will never have to buy another piano. You know that it will retain its unrivaled tone perfection for a lifetime; that you can always be proud of it; that even if Paderewski, or Rachmaninoff, or Hofmann came to your home you would have an instrument worthy of his touch. Sometimes people who want a Steinway think it economical to buy a cheaper piano in the beginning and wait for a Steinway. Usually this is because they do not realize how reasonable are Steinway prices and how easy are the terms of purchase. There are many Steinway styles but each style, in its field, is the perfect expression of Steinway quality. For those who can be fully satisfied only when they have the best in the piano-maker's art, it is obviously more economical to buy a Steinway "once and for all" than it is to buy two pianos in order to have the one that is really desired. Prices $875 Upwards We have on hand a few used upright pianos, thoroughly overhauled in our workshop—that we offer at bargain prices. Meyer-Seeger Music Co. 318 College-Avenue

Eclipse Of Sun On Jan. 24 Will Be 8 Per Cent Of Total Here

Although the path of the total solar eclipse, forecast for Saturday, Jan. 24, will miss Appleton by nearly 100 miles, the sun will appear as a very sharp crescent as it rises out of the west, according to Prof. John C. Lymer of the Lawrence college department of astronomy. There will be approximately 98 per cent eclipse in Appleton. At sunrise the moon will be between the sun and the earth, and the shadow of the moon will sweep across a portion of Minnesota, upper Michigan, over Lake Michigan, Lake Huron, Lower Ontario to Buffalo, thence spreading across New York and Connecticut to New Haven. Moving northward in the Atlantic, it will sink into the sea north of Scotland.

—Diagram from Nature Magazine
If you live in this belt about 100 miles wide you will see a wonderful sight on January 24. An eclipse such as this will not occur again in more than a century.

Your Income Tax

(This is the first of a series of articles prepared by the Internal Revenue Bureau of the federal government to assist taxpayers in understanding their income tax returns.)
Reduction of the income tax was effected by the revenue act of 1924. A rate reduction, however, was not the only benefit afforded by this legislation. Increase in the exemption for married persons and heads of families, a 25 per cent reduction on "earned income," and other changes are of immediate interest to every taxpayer. As an aid, therefore, in the preparation of income tax returns for the year 1924, the Bureau of Internal Revenue has prepared a series of articles on the new act and the regulations governing its administration, of which this is the first. The salaried man, wage earner, professional and business man, in fact every class of taxpayer—will be fully informed of their requirements and privileges. Taxpayers are advised to preserve these articles as a guide in the making of their returns.
Returns are required of every single person whose net income for 1924 was $1,000 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more and of every married person living with husband or wife whose net income was $2,500 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more. Divorces or married persons separated by mutual consent are classed as single persons. Married persons living together are required to file a return if their aggregate net income was $2,500 or more or the aggregate gross income was $5,000 or more.

Husband and wife living together may include the income of each in a single joint return, or each may file separate returns showing the income of each. Where a joint return is filed, the tax is computed on the aggregate income and all deductions and credits to which either is entitled is taken from such aggregate income.
If a wife does not file a separate return or join her husband in a return, the husband is required to include in his return all income received by the wife in payment of wages, salary, or from the sale of products of her labor. In the returns of married persons must be included also the income of dependent minor children.
It should be remembered that a husband and wife living together need make no return unless their aggregate net income for 1924 was $2,500 or more or the aggregate gross income was $5,000 or more. Last year returns were required of such married persons whose aggregate income was $2,000 or more.

STAGE AND SCREEN

BALANCING ROCK NEARLY ANNIHILATES FILM PLAYERS

While at work near the base of a huge rock in the ridges bordering the Mojave Desert in California making sequences for "The Code of the Wilderness," a David Smith production, which will be shown at the New Bijou theatre to day and Saturday, Alice Calhoun, who has the leading feminine role, had a thrill not in the picture.

Above the rock near which the company worked was one of the balancing type weighing approximately half a ton. It was discovered and admired during the preparation for the scene, and forgotten during rehearsal. It was brought vividly to mind again when one of the property men climbed near it to arrange the reflectors that furnish light for outdoor scenes. In some manner he overbalanced it, and before anyone could shout a warning, it crashed down, just touching the broad brim of Miss Calhoun's felt hat, knocking it askew. Fortunately the ground sloped sharply from where she was standing. The company lost two cameras which the rock crushed in its path, and from which two cameramen had leaped to save their lives.

HER MARRIAGE VOW

Last night at the Appleton Theatre, "Her Marriage Vow," the Warner Brothers screen version of the Owen Davis stage play had its premier opening. This picture easily excelled many others we have seen here for pictorial beauty and clever acting.
Beverly Bayne renewed her acquaintance with the moving picture camera after an absence of three years. And we are pleased to say that she has not lost any of her beauty or acting skill. Monte Blue co-starred with Beverly Bayne and never before did any team of actors receive such prolonged applause for their wonderful acting. Their work throughout the picture was of intense pathos interspersed with subtle comedy. John Roche and Margaret Livingston were in the cast and both played their parts very well. Willard Louis, whose very appearance upon the screen puts everybody in a jovial mood, brilliantly portrayed his role.

The story is a thrilling episode of a married woman who leaves her two small children home alone and visits her girl friend's apartment. There she meets her old sweetheart. Her husband comes home just in time to stop one of his children from taking poison. He immediately goes to his wife's friend's apartment where he sees his wife being kissed by his former rival. He orders his wife from his house and he keeps the children. During a great storm his wife steals into his house to see the children. She is about to kidnap them when he catches her. She pleads and begs to be forgiven, claiming she had not broken her marriage vow. Finally he forgives her for the children's sake.

"ALONG CAME RUTH" COMING ALONG SOON

"Along Came Ruth," Viola Dana's latest Metro picture, opens on Sunday at the Elite Theatre, for a run of one day only.
The screen's most vivacious little comedienne has one of her best roles as Ruth Ambrose, the girl who works up the "deepest" town in Maine. Crisscrossed with amusing situations and acted by a wonderful cast, "Along Came Ruth" is sure to satisfy the most critical who seek entertainment of a fresh variety. Whittred Dunn adapted the Henry W. Savage stage production of Holman Day's play and Eddie Cline directed John Arnold was chairman.
Miss Dana's supporting cast includes Tully Marshall, Raymond McKee, Walter Hiers, Victor Potel and Gale Henry.

A POWERFUL KICK IN "WINE OF YOUTH"

"Wine of Youth," King Vidor's picturization of Rachel Crothers' play "Mary The Third," opened today at the Elite Theatre. This Metro-Goldwyn picture is a faithful transcription of the entertaining story, which tells how a typical flapper of modern days decides which of her beaux to marry by taking them both on an unchaperoned camping party.
Eleanor Boardman proves her right to stellar honors as the flapper in question, while Pauline Garon appears to fine advantage as her closest girl friend. No less than eight leading men are in the picture. They include Ben Lyon, William Haines, William Collier, Jr., Bobby Agnew, Johnnie

Walker, Creighton Hale, Niles Welch and James Morrison. Carey Wilson made the adaptation.

Half the world is half asleep

Can success in life be undermined by constipation? Indeed it can. The poisons of this disease turn you out, wear you down, make you listless and make you lose interest in things in general. Ambition is most often prompted by a thoroughly healthy body. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings permanent relief from constipation.

He didn't have the energy to fight

LOST . . . another big order . . . the fourth defeat that day. All because he didn't have the energy to fight when his prospect said "No." Something had blunted his senses and stolen his strength.

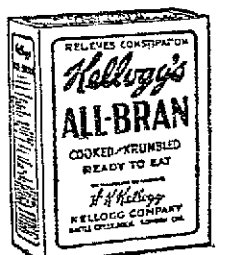

That "something" was constipation. What a shame so many people suffer from constipation when there is an easy, pleasant, sure way to permanent relief—the regular use of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—two tablespoons daily, or in chronic cases, with every meal.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is what doctors call a bulk food. As it travels through the system, its fiber remains unchanged. Therefore, it sweeps the intestine clean and drives out the vicious poisons of constipation. ALL-BRAN also absorbs and carries moisture through the intestinal tract, stimulating it to healthy, normal action. ALL-BRAN works as nature works.

Serve Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with milk or cream, sprinkled over cereals, or cooked with cereals; in soups, or made into the many recipes given on the package. Delicious with fruits too. If eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or your grocer returns the purchase price.

Caution! Be sure to get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. Kellogg's is the original and only ALL-BRAN. All grocers sell it. Leading restaurants serve it. Buy a package today. The original ALL-BRAN—ready-to-eat

VOTE HONORS FOR PAST COMMANDERS OF LEGION POST

Executive Committee Makes Plans for Monthly Meeting on Feb. 3

Past commanders might will be observed at the meeting of the Oney Johnston post of American legion on Monday evening, Feb. 2, according to plans made at a meeting of the post executive committee Thursday night in Conway hotel. Out-of-town speakers will be invited to present the seven past commanders with badges. A surprise is to feature the entertainment part of the program. It was decided to invite as special guests the members of the National guard unit.

Capt. Fred B. Rogers, leader of the Legion State phone band, reported that the band is rapidly getting into shape and a public concert is planned for Wednesday evening, March 18. A nominal admission is to be charged, the proceeds to be used to furnish band uniforms. A committee consisting of Capt. Rogers, T. H. Mooney, commander of the post, and J. L. Pettigrew, chairman of the executive committee, was appointed to meet a committee appointed by John H. Neller, chairman of the retail trades committee of the chamber of commerce, to discuss the designs and specifications of the uniforms with the purpose of enabling local dealers to place bids on them.

A sum was set aside for the use of the welfare committee of which Harry Friebe, vice commander, is chairman. Members of this committee visit the sick and disabled.

James V. Whelan, employment officer, reported that he had obtained work for two men, and that three others had found employment for themselves. This leaves twenty-five needy ex-service men looking for work. Most of these men are married. He requested that anyone having part time or regular work of any nature call him at Conkey insurance agency.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY RECOVERING FROM SLEEPING SICKNESS

James Culbertson Slept Continuously for Several Weeks

The first case of sleeping sickness to arise here in a number of years has attracted the interest of Appleton physicians. It is the case of James Culbertson, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Culbertson, Rural Route 2, Appleton.

Young Culbertson, who is a student at Appleton high school, is recovering from the mysterious malady with which he became afflicted about Christmas. He has been in St. Elizabeth hospital since the first of the year, and his condition is improving daily.

During the height of his sickness the boy slept almost continuously day and night except when he was roused to take his meals. His case never reached a stage that he lost consciousness in his waking moments.

No exact cause of the case has been found. He was vaccinated after the close of school for the Christmas vacation, but this is said to have nothing to do with the case, since the boy already showed symptoms of the sleeping sickness before he was vaccinated. He had been complaining regularly of feeling drowsy for four weeks before young Culbertson showed symptoms of the sickness. He was injured on the head, but whether the case can be attributed to this accident is not known.

According to Dr. Charles Reineck, the boy's physician, James Culbertson should be able to leave the hospital in about a week or more. The knowledge of any other in the locality of this section of the state, there were numerous cases during the war and also shortly after the war.

Hill won the match on two straight throws, the first in 24 minutes and 22 seconds by means of a double wrist lock. The other fall came easier with the same hold in ten minutes. Hill's superior strength won him much admiration. This feature enabled him to get out of many tight places. Chapman was somewhat lighter in weight.

In the curtain raiser H. Bard received one fall from Mumble in a 15-minute match. The semi-final round resulted in a draw with no falls in a match between Alizers of New London and McLaughlin of Waupaca.

$2,500 AWARDED TO WOMAN BURNED BY X-RAY MACHINE

Miss Belle Burstein Is Given Verdict in Suit Against Dr. Sandborn

Damages in the sum of $2,500 were awarded by the jury in circuit court Thursday to Miss Belle Burstein of Neenah, for injuries to her hand from an x-ray burn received in treatment by Dr. M. J. Sandborn of Appleton. The claim had been for approximately $15,000.

The index finger of the right hand was said to have been burned by the x-ray machine, on June 30, 1921, in the last of six treatments she had had from the doctor. As a result of the injury, it became necessary for her to submit to two operations and have new skin grafted on the hand.

The jury received the charge from Judge Edgar W. Werner at 12:30 Thursday noon and after lunch began deliberating. A verdict was reached by 4-3.

It was a special verdict containing four questions and answers. The first asked whether the plaintiff's finger had been burned by an x-ray machine operated by the defendant, and was answered in the affirmative. The second question asked whether the defendant failed to exercise the care, judgment and skill usually used by practitioners in similar circumstances. The answer was yes. The third answer affirmed that this want of care was the proximate cause of the injury, and the fourth answer fixed the amount of damages. The plaintiff would be entitled to receive under a favorable judgment.

Under a favorable judgment.

READY FOR HUGE CROWD AT LA WRENCE-RIPON TILT

Special Arrangements Are Made To Provide Seats For Cage Fans

Blues Are Handicapped by Losses and Injuries but Expected to Give Crimson Hard Contest

Special seating arrangements have been made in Armory G to accommodate the huge crowd expected to witness the opening of the Little Five basketball schedule Friday night when Lawrence meets the invading Ripon collection. While the Blues were working under a considerable handicap all week because of losses of and injuries to regulars, it was expected that the Friday evening game would be one of the hardest and closest scheduled for Appleton this season.

Ripon is regarded as one of the chief title contenders in the Little Five and Little Eight conferences this year, with a first squad composed entirely of veterans and a full quota of veterans as subs. The Crimson has defeated Cornell and Knox in the Midwest conference, and held Coe a narrow margin.

Friday's game will be more interesting on that account, as it will give a basis for comparison on between the teams Ripon already has met and which Lawrence meets in the future. Thus far Lawrence has lost but one game. The Blues have defeated Milton, Concordia, Loyola, and Wheaton, but lost to Northwestern at Naperville.

Hulbert and Collings, a pair of last season's regulars, quit the squad this season, while Ashman, Kotal and Zussman all are slowed down by minor injuries, leaving only Biese and Heideman in proper condition. This would not be so great a handicap if Coach Denney had a string of good subs, but as it is Ripon goes into the fracas a strong favorite.

The game is scheduled to start at 8:15, and the price of admission is 75 cents. While bleachers have been brought from the football field and erected along sides of the court to increase the seating capacity, fans are urged to come early to avoid the usual crush at the door.

The probable lineups will be: Lawrence: Ripon: Little, (capt.) Zussman, R. F. L. F. Jones, Heideman, L. F. Ashman, C. Gunderson, Kosbab, C. R. G. Hauser, Kotal, R. G. L. G. Uri, Biese, L. G.

Appleton high school cagers Friday journeyed to Marinette where they are scheduled to clash with the high school cage team there in their third game of the season. The Orange has defeated Sheboygan and Oshkosh in its two previous games, and was confident of adding another victory to the string Friday.

With the exception of Courtney, who injured his ankle last week in the game with Oshkosh, the first stringers were in fine shape. They put in a week of stiff drilling on their own court and in Armory G, and showed great improvement in their last workout Thursday evening.

WEEKLY ELKS TOURNAY POPULAR WITH KEGLERS

Weekly sweepstakes bowling tournaments have become an institution of great popularity on the Elks alleys, and the next one is scheduled for Saturday afternoon and evening. Last week there were 29 entries and the week before the same number. An entry fee is charged, all the money taken in therefrom being pooled for the winners. All bowlers in the city are eligible to enter.

Vean Gregg Touted To Come Back

Washington-Vean Gregg, almost 40 years of age, comes back to the big show next year as a member of the world champs.

Gregg, a star a dozen years back after having practically given up baseball for good, started anew and after two previous years in the Coast League gets another chance in the majors.

Baseball experts do not believe that Gregg will be of much use to Harris. On the other hand, Harris figures any left-handed pitcher who can get the ball over has a chance in the American League.

For a southpaw Gregg is noted for his good control and should be able to outpitch Harris in that respect. Then again it must be remembered that Dale Adams and Dick Quinn came back to the majors after being labeled "has been" and saw many years of good service.

Waco, Tex.-Walter Johnson star pitcher of the Washington Senators was asked to consider a proposition of taking over the Waco club franchise.

FANS WATCH FOR ICEBOAT RACE ON LAKE WINNEBAGO

Miss Milwaukee, Said to Be World's Largest Craft, Will Be Entered

By Associated Press Oshkosh-Ice yacht fans of the river valley are awaiting with keen interest a race which will be held on Lake Winnebago within the next few weeks and in which several of the largest and fastest "skeleton craft" in the middle west will compete. The event on which attention will focus is the contest for the Stewart cup, now held by Debutante III, of Oshkosh. The Stewart cup was held for many years in Canada but the Canadians were beaten a few years ago at Kalamazoo by Debutante III, sailed by the VanDykes of Milwaukee. This year Douglas VanDyke of Milwaukee and John Buckstaff of Oshkosh, and John Buckstaff will again enter Debutante III in an effort to retain the cup, while J. C. VanDyke of Milwaukee will sail a new yacht, Miss Milwaukee, in an attempt to lift the famous trophy. A third craft to be pitted from the large Oshkosh fleet also will be in the race, J. C. VanDyke's Miss Milwaukee, said to be one of the largest and fastest iceboats in the world will be brought here in the next two or three weeks to tune up for the Stewart cup race.

SAILOR GLICKNER DEFEATS SOBJECK

Legion Card Puts Fight Game Back on Map in Oshkosh Before Big Crowd

Oshkosh-Boxing was put back on the sport map here Thursday night when a capacity crowd appeared at the Legion card in Armory B. In the main bout Sailor Glickner defeated Larry Sobjcek in ten rounds. Battling Herb of Oshkosh took a slight shade over Willie LaMonte of Milwaukee in the semi-windup, Young Shaw knocked out Davy Jones, both of Oshkosh in the second round, which in the opener Young Howard, Oshkosh, knocked out Kid Hutchinson, Oshkosh, after 80 seconds of fighting. Sobjcek and Glickner, a pair of heavyweights, put up a good battle. Sobjcek emerged from the ring bathed in blood pouring from a cut above the eye and a split lip, which also painted Glickner a brilliant crimson. Herb and LaMonte staged the classic bout of the evening, boring in from start to finish.

LEONARD QUILTS AT REQUEST OF MOTHER, HE SAYS

Lightweight Champion Fears Another Fight Would Kill Parent

New York-In a signed statement Friday announcing his retirement of the ring, Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, gave love for his mother as the reason. He said that his mother for some time had pleaded with him to give up boxing because she feared he would be hurt. She became so insistent that finally Billy Gibson, Leonard's manager, advised the boxer to retire, saying "the shock of another fight will be too much for her."

Leonard is retiring from the ring in good financial circumstances and with a foundation for a stage career laid by months of preparation. Thus he is following in the footsteps of another noted pugilist, James J. Corbett.

KUNITZ KEGLERS TAKE FROM HOTEL NORTHERNS

Kunitz Keglers Thursday evening took revenge on the Hotel Northern for a recent defeat when they copied two out of three games in a match rolled on the Olympic alleys. However, the Northern piled up 2746 pins for the match while the Kunitz team trailed them with 2714. The Keglers won both games by very slight margins while they lost the last one by 44 pins.

TRIO OF WILD PITCHES COST YANKS TITLE

New York-Wild pitches are the exception in baseball. Pitchers with uncanny control like Mathewson have often gone through an entire season without making a wild heave. Every season the records show that probably a half dozen pitchers just fail to make such a record because of one wild chuck.

WOLVERINE ATHLETE STILL SEEKS RECORD

DeHart Hubbard of the University of Michigan is still on the trail of the running broad jump mark. Hubbard on several occasions has leaped over 26 feet and hopes to better the present record of 25 feet 6 inches, made by Lawrence at the Olympic games last summer. Hubbard is a senior and this will be his last season of collegiate competition.

HILBERT FIVE SWAMPS MANITOWOC TEAM, 30-16

Hilbert-After losing to the Co. I team of Neenah last week with a crippled quartet, Hilbert staged a comeback Thursday night by upsetting the Manitowoc Boosters, 30 to 16. The visitors' nine-man team was outclassed completely.

Retires

BENNY LEONARD

Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, Thursday announced his retirement from the ring, giving love for his mother as his only reason. For some time his mother has been urging him to leave the ring, fearing he might get hurt. At last his manager fearing the excitement of another battle might prove fatal to Mrs. Leonard, urged the fighter to quit.

By Associated Press Chicago-Paavo Nurmi, phenomenal Finn middle distance runner, comes to Chicago Friday night to meet Jole Ray of the Illinois A.C., whose record for the one and three quarter miles of their race has already been broken.

Four world's indoor track records two of which he holds, await the pleasure of the fleet Finn in the eighth annual indoor handicap track and field meet of the Illinois A. C. They are the 4.13 3-5 time for one mile he set on his initial appearance on this country; the 5.38 3-5 and one quarter miles record; the 6-4 4-5 one and one half miles time and the record of 7:55 3-4 for one and three quarters miles he made in New York Thursday night before boarding the train for Chicago.

Ray, whose fastest time in the mile and three quarters, 7:59 4-5, was a world mark for two years until Thursday night expects to race with Nurmi and Willie Ritola, his country man, to be the hardest of his career, hitherto scarcely threatened in its supremacy. He is in fine shape as a result of constant training since his last meeting with the invader in New York and considers he has an advantage over his opponent, who runs an hour after he completes his 1,000-mile journey.

The 19-lap track in the Coliseum is regarded by Ray as another advantage in his favor, since Nurmi's previous indoor performances have been on a longer oval. Every available nook and cranny of the Coliseum has been turned into seating space. University and athletic stars will compete in other programmed events. Notre Dame meets Wisconsin in a special two mile relay and teams of the Chicago A. A. and Illinois A. C. engage in a struggle for team supremacy in numerous field and track feats.

The NUT CRACKER

THE OLD MEN'S HOME WASHINGTON bounced into its first championship last fall on the drooling shoulder blades of the youngest manager that ever sprayed an umpire with honest venom.

This year the Griffith gang has about-faced, like a dark-hued Mississippi citizen meeting up suddenly and informally with a wandering white skater emblazoned with a profusion of K's.

Special rules will be embroidered for doddering athletes next summer and players tripping over their own whiskers will be allowed to advance one base without penalty.

Bucky Harris has come out for reelection on a platform of advanced senility and progressive antiquity.

No player who can't remember cheering Grant and Lee on their way to the Civil War camps back in the romantic 60's will be eligible for the latest model in old men's domiciles.

The 1925 D. C. varsity will be replete with bald heads, gray boards, fallen arches and similar octogenarians who aren't sure yet that the radio and the movies have come to stay.

Vean Gregg, who was a veteran when Pop Ansen and Dan Broutner were nursery nuisances, has entered the Washington all-are sweepstakes, and Swat Methusalem, a promising mid outfielder, is expected to join soon.

Gregg will add a new musical note to the antiquated pitching symphony at M. H. Harris' team. When he crooks his arm to throw a ball it sounds like someone winding an alarm clock.

Coaching exhortations will be amended to read, "Atta Grandpop!"

Young upstarts under 60 will be kept on the bench for seasoning pinch-base running and quiet purposes.

Toupees will be worn only on days of unreasonable weather, and new gloves will be provided on double header days at the discretion, if any, of the manager.

Gwyn Bowen Going Strong In California

Gwyn Bowen, former Riverview Country club professional, is making a name for himself on the Pacific coast where he now holds a position as instructor with the LaCumbre club of San Francisco.

According to a clipping from a California paper, Bowen and George Van Elm, Brentwood Country club professional, forced two visiting pros, Abe Mitchell and George Duncan, to the limit to win 3 up and 2 to go. Bowen was shooting within two or three strokes of par all day and Van Elm turned the course in par during the afternoon round.

New York-Ablin Stenroos, Finnish marathon star, plans a visit to the United States this year and is expected to participate in the historic Boston A. A. Marathon.

KIMBERLY MEETS NEENAH BOOSTERS

Kimberly-Kimberly Independents Friday evening will meet the Neenah Boosters in the Kimberly clubhouse in a game which is expected to be the best on the Independents' schedule. They have won six out of seven games thus far and expected to give the visitors a good run. They are strictly an amateur aggregation, coached by Jake Zussman, Lawrence college star.

An opening game between the Little Chute and Kimberly high school teams will add interest to the program. These two schools are intense rivals in all lines of sport, and without doubt their game will be the hardest fought of the year.

NONE IN SIGHT Bill Tilden has ruled the national singles tennis roost for the past five seasons. And as far as the naked eye can discern he isn't apt to be dethroned for quite a spell either.

COOK AND REHBEIN BUY PEOPLES GROCERY STORE Special to Post-Crescent New London-Herman Cook and Herman Rehbein bought out the Peoples grocery store Wednesday evening. The two men for some time past have been running a meat market in the grocery, which was owned by Joseph Soffa. However, due to a growing business, Mr. Rehbein and Mr. Cook found it necessary to have more space for their business, and as Mr. Soffa has been in ill health for some time, he decided to sell to the meat-men.

A new refrigerator has been ordered, and the building will be remodeled and refurbished, so that the firm can open for business in a short time.

KASHA

This is the copyrighted name of a wool fabric of the cashmere family, and may be used only to describe the material manufactured by the firm of Rodier of Paris.

Kasha

And similar materials are among the most fashionable fabrics that may be obtained. The prominence of Kasha insures the continued popularity for spring of wool flannels, which are also soft-finished and supple.

Half-and-Half Flannels

Are both new and practical. They're all-wool flannels over 56 inches in width, to allow for the trimming band in the cloth. One-half of this material is one color and the other half is a contrasting shade. This combination simplifies dressmaking, besides insuring a pleasing and fashionable result.

All Wool Flannels for Spring

Our flannels were chosen with the idea of quality uppermost and are all wool. A wide range of colors in reliable materials at a satisfactory price awaits you here.

Just Arrived!

An advance shipment of FAIRY CASHMERE. We have examined the genuine Kasha, and, as nearly as we can tell, FAIRY CASHMERE differs from the original Kasha in the following two ways only:

1. In name.
2. In price, being from $2.50 to $4.00 per yard less expensive.

Fairy Cashmere

You who have been waiting for Kasha for one of your spring frocks are cordially invited to inspect our display of FAIRY CASHMERE. Its beauty, as well as its adaptability and reasonable price, will please you.

A REMINDER

Pettibone's closes at six o'clock on Saturdays. During the severe winter weather, it is timely to try an experiment with our neighbor merchants for upwards of a year.

We aim to be of the utmost service with respect to our store hours to our local friends and to those who travel from a distance.

The uncertainties of winter weather and winter travel have been such that by closing at six o'clock on Saturday, we are not seriously inconveniencing any great number of our friends.

The response of the public by shopping in the daylight hours of Saturday rather than in the evening has been very generous and is greatly appreciated by ourselves and by our staff.

While closing at six o'clock is experimental, we believe we have taken the right side of the question.

Should the public find that they can conveniently arrange their shopping schedule to eliminate Saturday night hours for girls and women, we should feel like continuing the practice indefinitely. Let us thank you again most heartily for your co-operation.

COLLEGE ENROLLMENT IS NOW AN EVEN 1,300

Lawrence college has an enrollment of 890 students, 75 less than last quarter, according to Olin Mead, registrar. The Conservatory enrollment shows an opposite trend, with a gain this period of about twenty. This, however, still leaves a loss of about 55 for the school as a whole, making the number of Lawrentians practically an even 1300.

Although there will be some slight change in this number during the year, the period of greatest fluctuation is past.

Do This After Severe Illness

How to Speedily Gain Strength and Put on Needed Weight

Nothing like the wonderful vitalitying vitamins in Cod Liver Oil to help convalescing people to quickly get strong and well—everybody knows that.

But no body wants to take the ill-smelling, horrible tasting, stomach upsetting oil itself, so nowadays, up to elite medical men are ordering a tablet of Cod Liver Oil and it surely has proved a blessing to thousands of people who have been sapped of their natural strength after a severe illness and especially after the Grippe or a stubborn cough or cold.

Ask Schlitz Bros. and DeWaver's Drug Store or any regular druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. They cost but little, are sugar coated and as pleasant to take as candy.

Skinny men and women take them to speedily put on plenty of good healthy solid flesh and for this purpose they are so extremely good that thin men and women often take on 5 pounds or more in 30 days. As a matter of fact, your druggist will return your money if you don't take on 5 pounds in 30 days.

Great for weak, skinny, backward, run-down children, too, and gives them a hearty appetite.

Be sure and ask for McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—50 Tablets—50 cents.
